

Binding SSL-Certificate on the IIS Website

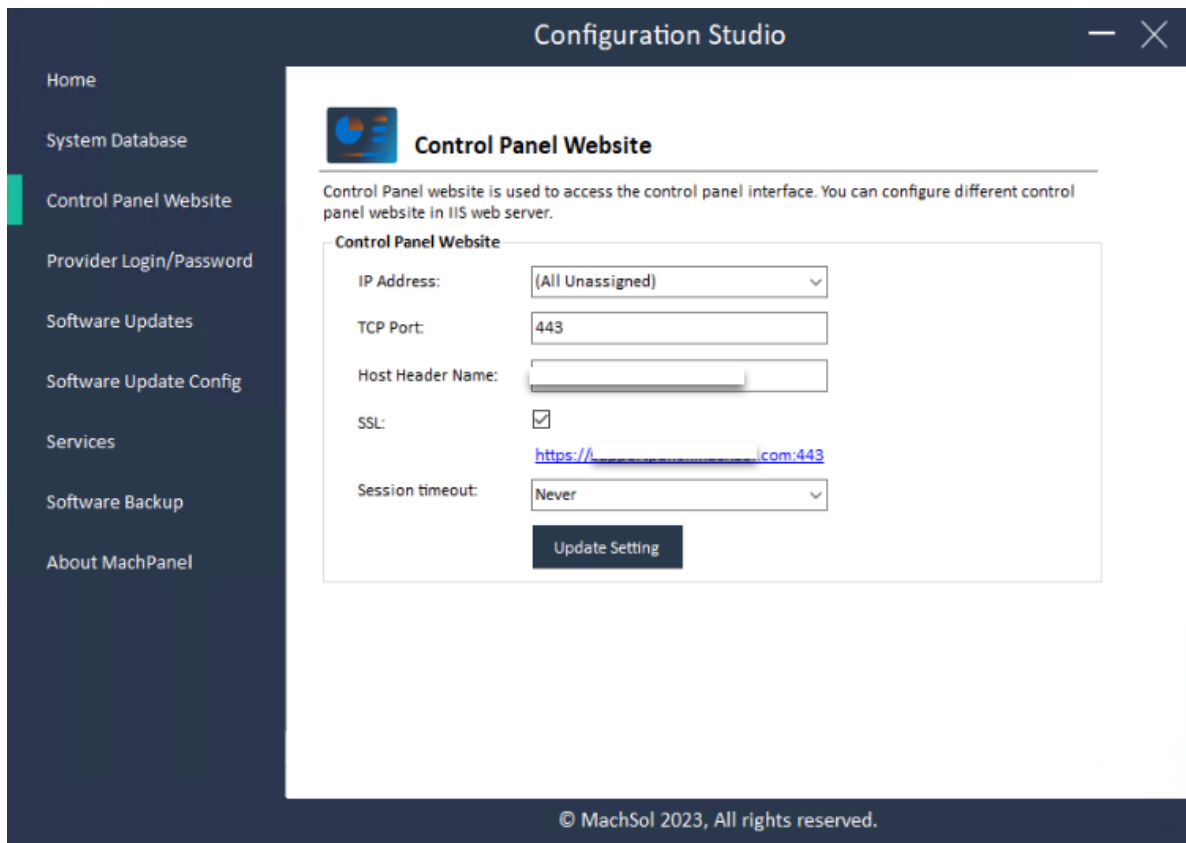

Summary

This article provide a summary for binding SSL Certificate on the IIS Website.

Applies To

This article applies to all versions of MachPanel

- Now Launch MachPanel Configuration Studio
 - Navigate to Configure >> Control Panel Website
- 1. Specify TCP Port 443
- 2. Check SSL checkbox
- 3. Click Update setting

Bind SSL Certificate on the IIS Website:

Binding SSL-Certificate on the IIS Website

- First of all import the certificate in IIS on your MachPanel control server.
 - Navigate to Sites section
1. Select MachPanel Control Server click on SSLSettings
 2. Click on Bindings link from Actions pane

- Click on Add button on Site Bindings

Binding SSL-Certificate on the IIS Website

1. Import certificate.
2. Select certificate
3. Select type https, port no 443
4. Host name can also be specified
5. Click OK

Binding will be shown like this once done

MachPanel Knowledgebase

<https://kb.machsol.com/Knowledgebase/52396/Binding-SSLCertificate-on-the-II...>